

Dr Sarah Peers PhD PGCE MSc BSc MIET MIKE FWES FRSA

Sarah is Vice President, trustee and Fellow of the Women's Engineering Society (WES), a member of the Institute of Innovation & Knowledge Exchange (IKE) and of the Institution of Engineering & Technology. Her background is mathematics; her PhD and field of research was in reliability- and AI-based planning of offshore structure maintenance, at University College London. She is currently a director and advisor at IKE in London and works as a consultant on STEM education and innovation.

