

Biography: Gail G. Mattson, P.E., CHMM, PMP

Associate Laboratory Director, Environment Safety & Health
Brookhaven National Laboratory
40 Brookhaven Ave., Bldg 460
Upton, NY 11973
Work: 631-344-2482
Cell: 631-644-1065
gmattson@bnl.gov

Gail Mattson is a registered professional engineer in 7 states with over 30 years' experience in environmental engineering, safety, radiological control, project management, business development and corporate relations. She received her MSE in Environmental Engineering from the University of Washington. Presently, she has authority and responsibility over all of the operations of the ES&H Directorate with a $30M budget at Brookhaven National Laboratory, which is one of the US Department of Energy's (USDOE) multipurpose research institutions that operates cutting-edge large-scale science facilities. In addition to 25 years of involvement with the Society of Women Engineers at all levels, including the FY01 National President, she is a founding member of the International Network of Women Engineers and Scientists (INWES) and the INWES Education and Research Institute, and is currently is serving as the INWES VP for Conferences.